TO : Director of Training

DATE: 25 May 1965

FROM : Chief, Intelligence School

SUBJECT: Biweekly Activities Report No. 11
11 - 24 May 1965

1. On 12 May Chief IS critiqued the Current Intelligence Briefings given by the CT's in the Intelligence Production Course on 6 May. The sound film taken of the briefings was used as a critique device.

2. On 12 May Chief IS, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] viewed an Air Force training film on writing skill. There was general agreement that the film was too unsophisticated for our use and was certainly not worth the $200 that a print would cost.

3. On the morning of 17 May Chief IS gave a brief welcoming talk to the students of the Introduction to Intelligence Course and returned in the afternoon to give the briefing on "The History of U.S. Intelligence."

4. On 20 May Chief IS went to Headquarters Building and attended a meeting in which the PERT concept was explained by an officer from the Navy Department. In the DTR's staff meeting on 24 May, Chief IS gave a brief oral report of the meeting.

25X1A

5. On 21 May [REDACTED] visited Chief IS and described tentative plans for reviving the unclassified training program at NPIC. If the revival is officially requested by NPIC and approved by DTR, the Intelligence School will cooperate in providing such a program - to the extent that prior commitments and instructor availability permit.
